 Read the paraphrase of Exodus 19:16-20.

On the morning of the third day, thunder roared. Lightning flashed. A thick cloud came down on the mountain. There was a long, loud blast from a ram's horn. All the people trembled. Moses led them out from the camp to meet with God. They stood at the foot of the mountain. All of Mount Sinai was covered with smoke because the LORD had come down on it in the form of fire. The smoke went up into the sky. The whole mountain shook. As the blast of the ram's horn grew louder and louder, Moses spoke. God thundered His reply. The LORD came down on the top of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the top of the mountain. So Moses went up the mountain.
