Samson loved Delilah. His enemies made a deal with her. They said, "Find out how he is so strong. We want to beat him and control him. We will give you money." Delilah asked Samson many times, "Tell me how you can be up." One time he said, "Use seven straps."

Another he said, "Tie me up with new ropes." Another time he said, "Weave the braids of my hair into a loom." Delilah tried it all. But each Samson was strong. He broke the straps. He snapped the the ropes. He pulled up the loom. Delilah asked him day after day, "How can you be up?" He got tired of it, so he her the truth. Samson said, "I am set apart for God. If you shave my I will be weak." She told his enemies. They gave her the money. His enemies shaved his when he was asleep. Delilah called out, "Samson!

Your enemies are attacking you!" He woke up. The LORD had him. He was . His enemies put chains on him and put him in jail.

But his hair started to grow.
